

Creating a Tune Player Code Block

Once this code has been tested, it can be incorporated into a custom Tune Player code block created by the programmer.

Clicking this custom block plays the tune recorded in the list of notes.

The Tune Player block could be further refined and enhanced by incorporating additional variables such as the type of instrument played (for example).